Programme overview

Six original self-paced written English lessons on choosing a citation system, collecting source metadata, responsible quotation and paraphrasing, and building a traceable reference list. Includes worked examples, answered exercises, knowledge checks and a self-assessed capstone. Optional use of the existing automated Course Tutor; no recorded lectures, live classes or human marking is included. 6 self-paced written English lessons with original examples, practical exercises, explained answers and a self-assessed capstone. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Independent ZELVU practical study. Software licences, official style manuals, live human teaching, individual marking, recorded lecture series, external accreditation and journal publication are not included. Follow the required institution or journal guide and verify source metadata; examples labelled fictional are for formatting practice only. These same six lessons are included in the comprehensive Academic Referencing Complete Course. Choose this focused course or the master route according to your needs; buying both repeats this material and does not add different lessons.

Who this is for

1. Comfort reading academic English; no prior referencing knowledge or paid software is required.
2. Use a personal practice manuscript and permitted, non-confidential source records.

Published topics and learning focus

1. Claims, sources and citation systems
2. Collect, classify and record source metadata
3. Paraphrase, quote and summarise with integrity
4. Source boundaries, secondary citations and permissions
5. Build and reconcile the reference list
6. Capstone: from evidence cards to a checked paragraph
