Programme overview

Build practical advocacy and independent-practice skills through oral submissions, case analysis, witness questioning, persuasive writing, client interviews, ethical client development, chamber operations, fees and client care, negotiation, and verified digital research. Includes the same 60 original written lessons and ten self-assessed capstones offered in the focused courses. 60 self-paced written English lessons with original worked examples, practical tasks, explained answers and ten self-assessed capstones. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Independent ZELVU skills study for the Indian legal-practice context. No client leads, client or income guarantee, case-outcome promise, live human instruction, supervised courtroom practice, individual human marking, recorded lecture series, professional enrolment or external accreditation is included. Check current law, court directions and professional rules before actual use; all client and case exercises are fictional. Includes the same learning material as all ten specialist courses in this collection, within this single course. Separate specialist purchases are unnecessary. It does not grant separate course entitlements or extend earlier purchases. Existing litigation, drafting, legal-English, arbitration, contract and AOR programmes are related and sold separately.

Who this is for

1. Law students, graduates and practising advocates who can read English. Basic Indian legal-system knowledge is useful. Use only the fictional case files supplied for practice; actual representation requires applicable professional eligibility and case-specific supervision.
2. Use fictional case files and avoid uploading confidential client information into practice exercises or AI tools.
