Programme overview

One integrated Foundation programme for APO, APP, ADA and ADPO recruitment preparation. Study offences, criminal procedure, evidence and prosecutorial fairness; apply the law through case files, objective questions, written submissions and self-assessment. State study paths are notification-mapping workbooks within this programme, not separate courses or a claim that every state syllabus is identical. Match special laws, civil-law additions, language, general studies, examination stages and eligibility to the exact recruitment notification.

Who this is for

- 1 Law students, law graduates and advocates seeking a prosecution-recruitment foundation; course participation is not confirmation of recruitment eligibility.
- 2 Check the exact notification and corrigenda for the recognised law degree, age cut-off, category relaxations, enrolment or practice experience, language, nationality and other conditions.
- 3 Do not assume that fresh graduates qualify for every APP/ADA/APO/ADPO vacancy or that every recruitment has prelims, mains and interview.

Published topics and learning focus

- 1 BNS offences and ingredient analysis, with relevant IPC comparison
- 2 BNSS investigation, custody, bail and trial, with relevant CrPC comparison
- 3 BSA evidence, witnesses and electronic records, with relevant Indian Evidence Act comparison
- 4 Constitutional safeguards, prosecutorial ethics and special-law application
- 5 Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Delhi, Tamil Nadu, Haryana and Madhya Pradesh notification-mapping workbooks
- 6 Original MCQs with explained answers, written case-file exercises, revision and self-assessment
