Programme overview

Explore role families, build a student project and prepare for a suitable future internship without treating a school subject as a fixed career destiny. 8 written workshops with worked examples, practical worksheets, 24 answered self-check questions and a portfolio self-assessment. Suggested 60-90 minutes per workshop, including practice; pace is flexible. Independent self-paced written training in English with automated Course Tutor support. No employer introductions, placement service, guaranteed interview, job, salary, live classes, recorded lecture series, human marking or accredited qualification is included. Every focused pathway includes the same six Job-Search Foundations workshops plus two audience-specific workshops. Choose Foundations or one focused pathway; buying several repeats the six shared workshops. Existing subject courses and personality/English courses are separate optional products.

Who this is for

1. Senior-secondary and college learners. Under-18 learners should use this as supervised career exploration with a parent or guardian; employment and internship eligibility must be checked separately.

2 Independent self-paced written training in English with automated Course Tutor support. No employer introductions, placement service, guaranteed interview, job, salary, live classes, recorded lecture series, human marking or accredited qualification is included.
