Programme overview

Six focused workshops in extending answers, storytelling, opinions, discussion, paraphrasing and a final conversation portfolio. This is a practice course, not a complete advanced-language qualification. Six self-paced written workshops with original dialogues, speaking tasks, 18 answered self-check questions and a final portfolio self-assessment. Existing automated Course Tutor support; no scheduled live classes or recorded lecture series. No human-marked speaking assessment, accredited language qualification, guaranteed fluency, exam score or job placement. Optional private recording and external audio practice are learner-arranged. Independent practice extension alongside Spoken English & Communication. Choose the existing broader course for a longer general pathway; these focused courses are optional and separately priced.

Who this is for

Adults who can already hold a short everyday conversation and want to organise longer spoken responses.

- 2 Suggested pace: two workshops a week, with 10-15 minutes of speaking practice between sessions. Pace is flexible; access lasts 12 months.
