Programme overview

Original self-paced written skills course on witness purposes, ethical preparation, chief, cross-examination, documentary questions and re-examination in fictional Indian court scenarios. It is not a comprehensive evidence or procedural law qualification. 6 self-paced written English lessons with original worked examples, practical tasks, explained answers and a self-assessed capstone. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Independent ZELVU skills study for the Indian legal-practice context. No client leads, client or income guarantee, case-outcome promise, live human instruction, supervised courtroom practice, individual human marking, recorded lecture series, professional enrolment or external accreditation is included. Check current law, court directions and professional rules before actual use; all client and case exercises are fictional. This material also appears in 'Advocacy & Law Practice Complete Course'; separate purchases overlap. Buying this course and 'Advocacy & Law Practice Complete Course' duplicates this material. Existing broad litigation courses are related offerings sold separately.

Who this is for

1. Basic familiarity with Indian legal terminology and case documents. Check the applicable evidence regime, forum rules and current authorities for real proceedings.
2. Use fictional case files and avoid uploading confidential client information into practice exercises or AI tools.

Published topics and learning focus

1. Plan a witness by purpose and applicable evidence regime
2. Prepare ethically and conduct a clear examination-in-chief
3. Build focused and fair cross-examination sequences
4. Use documents and prior statements with proper foundations
5. Clarify in re-examination and raise focused objections
6. Capstone: build chief, cross and re-examination plans
