Programme overview

Six original written lessons using the named Leeds Harvard variant to teach source attribution, books, chapters, online sources, exceptions and a complete answered manuscript capstone. Includes an adaptation method for other institutional Harvard guides. 6 self-paced written English lessons with original examples, practical exercises, explained answers and a self-assessed capstone. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Independent ZELVU practical study. Software licences, official style manuals, live human teaching, individual marking, recorded lecture series, external accreditation and journal publication are not included. Follow the required institution or journal guide and verify source metadata; examples labelled fictional are for formatting practice only. The same six specialist lessons are included in the Academic Referencing Complete Course. Choose the focused Harvard course or that complete path; no separate purchase is needed for duplicate access to this material.

Who this is for

1. Basic academic reading and a word processor. Bring the actual referencing instructions for your institution or target journal.
2. Use a personal practice manuscript and permitted, non-confidential source records.

Published topics and learning focus

1. Choose and document the required Harvard variant
2. Use quotations and paraphrases without losing attribution
3. Reference books, chapters and the edition actually used
4. Handle online journal articles and webpages
5. Resolve missing dates, secondary citations and list inconsistencies
6. Capstone: produce a coherent Leeds Harvard article extract

Before you choose

1. These are published programme highlights, not certification of complete syllabus coverage. Review the available reading index and programme trial before enrolling.
2. ZELVU provides learning support. It does not award the underlying degree, professional registration or an examination result.
