Programme overview

Independent QLTT subject preparation covering the Irish legal system, constitutional law, contract, tort, land and conveyancing, equity and trusts, company law, criminal law and evidence, professional practice and exam technique. A Law Society of Ireland Certificate of Eligibility is compulsory before sitting the QLTT. As at 10 October 2026, an Indian advocate qualification by itself is not on the direct-eligibility list, so the learner must establish a separate eligible qualification or obtain a written individual eligibility basis before relying on this route.
