Learning format

Self-paced written lessons, original worked examples, private practice worksheets, explained self-checks and a self-assessed capstone in the ZELVU LMS.

Programme overview

Twelve written lessons cover digitals, image permissions, application briefs, identity checks, slates, eyelines, recording, submission and professional follow-up. Complete a fictional casting package and review it against an explicit rubric. Self-paced written lessons, original worked examples, private practice worksheets, explained self-checks and a self-assessed capstone in the ZELVU LMS. For adults aged 18 and above. No live coaching, recorded lecture library, included professional shoot, agency representation, casting access, placement, pageant entry, guaranteed result or accredited qualification is included. Practical work is private learner practice; individual instructor marking and supervised professional competence assessment are not provided. Basic camera framing and professional boundaries overlap with Modelling Foundations and Camera Posing. This course concentrates on application documents and self-tape delivery; buying the other courses is optional.
