Programme overview

Original English self-paced written study of negotiation preparation, client authority, offers, mediation process verification, participation, settlement terms, and a fictional capstone for Indian advocates and legal learners. 6 self-paced written English lessons with original worked examples, practical tasks, explained answers and a self-assessed capstone. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Independent ZELVU skills study for the Indian legal-practice context. No client leads, client or income guarantee, case-outcome promise, live human instruction, supervised courtroom practice, individual human marking, recorded lecture series, professional enrolment or external accreditation is included. Check current law, court directions and professional rules before actual use; all client and case exercises are fictional. This course is also included in 'Advocacy & Law Practice Complete Course'. Purchasing both duplicates this material. Existing related courses remain separate and retain their own curriculum and access terms.

Who this is for

1. Basic familiarity with legal disputes and advocate ethics is helpful. This educational course does not confer mediator accreditation, enrolment, practice rights, or authority to advise a real client.
2. Use fictional case files and avoid uploading confidential client information into practice exercises or AI tools.
