Programme overview

Self-paced written training in hearing preparation, oral submissions, record navigation, judicial questions and proportionate relief; a skills course rather than a comprehensive procedural law qualification. 6 self-paced written English lessons with original worked examples, practical tasks, explained answers and a self-assessed capstone. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Independent ZELVU skills study for the Indian legal-practice context. No client leads, client or income guarantee, case-outcome promise, live human instruction, supervised courtroom practice, individual human marking, recorded lecture series, professional enrolment or external accreditation is included. Check current law, court directions and professional rules before actual use; all client and case exercises are fictional. This material also appears in 'Advocacy & Law Practice Complete Course'; separate purchases overlap. Buying this course and 'Advocacy & Law Practice Complete Course' duplicates this material. Existing broad litigation courses are related offerings sold separately.

Who this is for

1. Basic familiarity with Indian legal institutions and legal reading. Learners must verify the actual forum, procedural stage and current rules before applying any technique.
2. Use fictional case files and avoid uploading confidential client information into practice exercises or AI tools.

Published topics and learning focus

1. Turn a case file into a hearing objective
2. Navigate the record and use authorities accurately
3. Deliver an opening and answer the bench
4. Rebut accurately and make controlled concessions
5. Explain workable relief and prepare for the hearing
6. Capstone: a record-preservation hearing
