Programme overview

Twelve written lessons cover event-rule verification, introductions, Q&A, speaking, advocacy evidence, personal branding, media kits, interviews, boundaries, event planning and feedback. Finish a fictional presentation portfolio with a self-assessment rubric. Self-paced written lessons, original worked examples, private practice worksheets, explained self-checks and a self-assessed capstone in the ZELVU LMS. For adults aged 18 and above. No live coaching, recorded lecture library, included professional shoot, agency representation, casting access, placement, pageant entry, guaranteed result or accredited qualification is included. Practical work is private learner practice; individual instructor marking and supervised professional competence assessment are not provided. Communication and professional presentation overlap with existing Personality Development courses. This course applies those skills to pageant-style interviews and personal-brand planning.
