Programme overview

A practical course in consent-based comparison of two charts, Moon-sign and nakshatra identification, declared Tara counting, component-score auditing and cautious whole-chart context. It teaches traditional methods as cultural interpretation, not a validated test of relationship quality, health, fertility or personal worth. Six self-paced written lessons in English with worked examples, exercises, explained answers and a capstone with a self-assessment rubric. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Study of traditional and symbolic interpretive methods. Astrological predictions are not scientifically established. No live human classes, personal chart consultation, individual human marking, recorded lecture series, software licence, external accreditation or guaranteed outcome is included. Examples use fictional or supplied data; this course does not provide medical, financial or legal advice. Extends kundali-reading-horoscope-analysis into paired-chart practice. It does not duplicate Western synastry/composite construction, replace counselling or imply a professional marriage-advice qualification.

Who this is for

1. Read signs, houses and nakshatras; complete the existing Kundali reading programme. Use fictional cases or records shared with informed consent.
2. Use fictional or explicitly consented chart data; keep personal birth details private.

Published topics and learning focus

1. Prepare Two Consented Chart Records
2. Understand the Eight-Factor Score and Its Limits
3. Count Tara in Both Directions and Audit Nadi Labels
4. Compare Whole-Chart Context Without Inventing Traits
5. Write a Comparison Report That Preserves Choice
6. Capstone: Calculate and Explain a Paired-Chart Comparison
