Programme overview

A complete introductory reading method for an RWS-style 78-card deck, with original reference tables for every Major, numbered Minor and court card; fixed-position spreads, optional declared reversals, journals and a scored capstone. Tarot is taught as an adjacent cultural and symbolic practice, not an astronomical chart system or scientifically established prediction, diagnosis or discovery of hidden facts. Historical traditions and deck conventions vary. The course does not provide clinical, legal or financial advice, literal death forecasts, curse claims, certification or instruction in every tarot tradition. Six self-paced written lessons in English with worked examples, exercises, explained answers and a capstone with a self-assessment rubric. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Study of traditional and symbolic interpretive methods. Astrological predictions are not scientifically established. No live human classes, personal chart consultation, individual human marking, recorded lecture series, software licence, external accreditation or guaranteed outcome is included. Examples use fictional or supplied data; this course does not provide medical, financial or legal advice. Adjacent symbolic-practice elective within the astrology catalog. No astronomical chart calculation, birth-chart interpretation or planetary timing is taught. Distinct from Western natal, BaZi, Vedic and other chart-reading courses; optional suit-element associations are cultural conventions.
