Programme overview

Subject tutorials for Trained Graduate Teacher aspirants: punjabi linguistics, gurmukhi, poetry, prose, fiction and drama. Includes selected published foundation readings and teaching-methodology support; complete recruiter-specific syllabus coverage is not certified. Prior Punjabi/Gurmukhi reading ability is recommended. Original subject-unit references are retained as source context. Verify the precise TGT literary texts, language requirements and paper format separately.

Who this is for

1. Graduates, teacher-training students and aspirants preparing for the relevant TGT subject; review the published reading index before enrolling.
2. Course enrolment is separate from recruitment eligibility. Verify the current notice for degree subjects, teacher-training qualification, CTET/TET, marks, age and relaxations.
3. Independent ZELVU learning support. This course does not award a B.Ed., CTET/TET qualification or government appointment, and does not imply recruiting-authority affiliation.

Published topics and learning focus

1. Punjabi sounds, grammar, language variation and Gurmukhi
2. Sufi and Gurmat poetry and qissa

3 Modern poetry and prose

4 Short story and drama readings

5 Child development, lesson planning and assessment
