Self-paced selected subject readings, teaching methodology and Course Tutor support

Programme overview

Subject tutorials for Trained Graduate Teacher aspirants: urdu language analysis, ghazal, nazm, prose, drama and literary interpretation. Includes selected published foundation readings and teaching-methodology support; complete recruiter-specific syllabus coverage is not certified. Prior Urdu reading ability is recommended. Selected subject chapters retain their original unit and text references; they are supplementary readings, not a complete official TGT text list or beginner script course.

Who this is for

1. Graduates, teacher-training students and aspirants preparing for the relevant TGT subject; review the published reading index before enrolling.
2. Course enrolment is separate from recruitment eligibility. Verify the current notice for degree subjects, teacher-training qualification, CTET/TET, marks, age and relaxations.
3. Independent ZELVU learning support. This course does not award a B.Ed., CTET/TET qualification or government appointment, and does not imply recruiting-authority affiliation.

Published topics and learning focus

1. Language history, phonology, morphology and syntax
2. Qasida, masnavi and marsiya

3 Classical ghazal and nazm

4 Dastan, drama and novel readings

5 Child development, lesson planning and assessment
