Programme overview

Develop clear, accurate written advocacy: identify the decision and relief, organise the record, verify authorities, explain reasoning, answer objections and audit a final submission through worked fictional drafting exercises. 6 self-paced written English lessons with original worked examples, practical tasks, explained answers and a self-assessed capstone. Optional automated Course Tutor assistance is available in the protected LMS. Independent ZELVU skills study for the Indian legal-practice context. No client leads, client or income guarantee, case-outcome promise, live human instruction, supervised courtroom practice, individual human marking, recorded lecture series, professional enrolment or external accreditation is included. Check current law, court directions and professional rules before actual use; all client and case exercises are fictional. The same six written lessons are included in the Advocacy & Law Practice Complete Course. Choose the complete course or the individual specialist courses you need; purchasing both repeats this material. Existing drafting and litigation programmes are separate related offerings.

Who this is for

1. Law students, graduates and advocates who can read English. Basic legal-system knowledge is useful. Actual submissions require the applicable current law, forum rules, client instructions and appropriate professional supervision.
2. Use fictional case files and avoid uploading confidential client information into practice exercises or AI tools.

Published topics and learning focus

1. Write for the decision the court must make
2. Build an accurate factual account from the record
3. Use authorities for propositions they actually support
4. Write clear reasoning and answer the strongest objection
5. Make the requested relief precise and the final document reliable
6. Capstone: draft and audit a complete written submission
